Tolls Bill Subject of Debate
Week Before Committee
Reports.

GIVEN RIGHT OF WAY.

Optimistic Administration Leaders Predict Vote on the Measure in Three Weeks.

Washington, April 6.—With the scene of activity on the issue of Panama toll exemption repeal shifted to the Senate, after the triumph of the Administration in the House, last week, plans are still in the formative stage for the final struggle in the great controversy.

Formal consideration of the bill to repeal tolls exemption for American ships will be taken up tomorrow morning by the Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals, of which Senator O'Gorman, leader of the Democratic opposition, is chairman. Besides the House bill, upon which President Wilson and his adherents propose to stand, the committee will have before it various amendments and proposed compromises, and these will be discussed during the week before any formal report is made to the Senate.

While the committee is at work preliminary discussion of the tolls subject will continue in the Senate, various champions and opponents of the measure having taken notice of their intention to speak. Leaders do not expect speeches to change any votes, but there will be a flood of oratorical effort, which will far exceed in length and intensity the 20-hour debate on the bill in the House.

Debate in close touch with the situation will predict how long the controversy may continue, but the most optimistic opponents of repeal do not look for a vote for three weeks, and general debate cannot begin until a report is made or a motion is offered to discharge the committee from further consideration of the bill. Senators Hoke Smith, of Georgia, James, of Kentucky, and Owen, of Alabama, are to lead the administration forces in the contest. From the public side they will be aided by Senators Root, Lodge, and McCumber, Democratic opposition forces will be led by Senator O'Gorman, of New York, Chamberlain, of Oregon, Ashurst, of Arizona. On the Republican side, Senator Gallinger, the minority leader, will direct opposition to the repeal, and such stalwarts as Senator Penrose and Oliver are planning to consolidate the Republican force against the repeal insofar as that can be done. Many Progressive-Republican senators will join the opposition, but despite the formidable array the Anti-Administration forces, the president and his supporters retain confidence that the repeal cause will be upheld. Little general legislation expected in the Senate until this all-important issue is decided.

LUNATIC KILLED.

W. Foley, inmate of Government Hospital, Assaults Caretaker.

Washington, April 6.—During a private struggle today with four attendants, John W. Foley, a patient in the Government Hospital for the Insane, received injuries which resulted in his death a few minutes later.

Foley, former coal passer in the navy and a giant in size and strength, got into an altercation with Ira B. Carle in a washroom in the main building. The struggle attracted William F. Biedler, William J. Smith, and R. C. Smith, attendants, who rushed to the washroom and separated the two men.

Foley fought the attendants, but succeeded in getting him back into the room after a struggle which several minutes. The great excitement prevailed among the inmates in the building while the two men were being pushed through the corridors to his room.

PROMISES RETURN TO JAIL.

Alleged Slayer Says He Feared Mob But Will Face Trial.

Luray, Va., April 6.—Apparently a fear that he would be lynched prompted Charles Sisk, awaiting trial on a double murder charge, to saw his way out of the Madison county jail. Apparently seven men aided him, and his wife may have been the person who furnished him with the saws that he used, for the following letters, addressed to Jailor Hall and his wife, were found in Sisk's cell after he had fled. The letter to the jailor, hidden in the bed clothing, was as follows:

"I will tell you why I did go out of here. I was told that there was a crowd of men that was coming here to take me out and kill me so some of you good friends, dis help me to get out and I am very thankful to them for I am not ready to die but I will be back here to my trial at the May term. So my trial will be put off till that time. You think I am not coming back to see how it goes. Why Mr. Hall you can't blame me for going out for my life is sweet to me. They was 7 men help me out. They was in here that rainy night but I did not know who either was at first. I was afraid of them but I soon seen that they was not going to hurt me.

The letter to Mrs. Sisk was so placed that it was seen by the first person who entered the fugitive's cell. In part it was as follows:

Dear, I am not well but I truly hope that when these few lines come to your hands to read they will find you as well. I am out and gone. I thank you for saving my life. They was a crowd of men that was coming here to kill me, but I had some good friends to help me out. I can't see you no more till May term of Court. Met me here the day before, that is the 10th of May.

BISHOP CRUCIFIED. ?

Rt. Rev. Campos of Chilapa, Was Ordered by Rebel to Produce $50,000.

Mexico City, April 6.—Grave fears that Bishop Campos, of Chilapa, may have been crucified by the bandit rebel Zapata, are felt here today.

Bishop Campos was captured by Zapatistas, last week, it was learned. Zapata then demanded $50,000 of the bishop, declaring that unless the money was produced he would be crucified on Good Friday. Whether the rebel leader carried out his threat without waiting for the date set is not known, but the worst is feared. Bishop Campos is known to have been without funds.

CHASE INDICTED.

Washington, April 6.—Charles N. Chase, formerly business secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, was indicted by the grand jury today on a charge of embezzling funds of the association amounting to $10,461.94.

There are six counts in the indictment which charge embezzlements.

STUART NAMES TAX COMMISSION

Members Appointed by Governor to Serve From State at Large.

TO BEGIN WORK EARLY

Senators Echols, Buchanan and Harman, And Delegates Pitts, Chalkley, Weaver and Montague.

Richmond, Va., April 6.—After a conference in the office of Governor Stuart Saturday between the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson and Speaker Cox, the appointment of a State Tax Commission was announced as follows:

Thomas Walker Page, of Charlottesville, professor of economics at the University of Virginia.

Stephen Roswell Donohoe, of Fairfax Courthouse, editor of the Fairfax Herald, and former auditor of Public Accounts.

Joseph B. Anderson, of Danville, for many years commissioner of revenue of that city.

State Senator Edward Echols, of Staunton.

State Senator B. F. Buchanan, of Marion, Smyth county.

State Senator Arthur C. Harman, of Richmond.

Delegate D. H. Pitts, of Scottsville, Albemarle county.

Delegate John W. Chalkley, of Big Stone Gap, Wise county.

Delegate Aubrey G. Weaver, Front Royal, Warren county.

Delegate Hill Montague, of Richmond.

The first three were named by the Governor from the State at Large. The three Senators were appointed by Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson, and the four members of the House of Delegates were named by Speaker Edwin P. Cox. The three have had frequent conferences with a view of selecting the best possible list. Before the list was announced acceptances were secured from all ten members.

To some of the lawyer members especially, the service will be at considerable sacrifice, as practically their entire time will be taken until the special session meets in January. Dr. Page will be given a leave of absence. Mr. Donohoe is a man of independent means, and Mr. Anderson can have his work performed by deputies. The greatest sacrifices will be made by Senator Buchanan, who only consented to serve at the reiterated request of the Lieutenant-Governor, and by Delegates Chalkley and Weaver, who will be forced to spend much of their time in Richmond for the next eight or ten months.

Under the terms of the act providing for the Tax Commission it is to organize with "all convenient haste," and is to select one of its members as chairman and one as secretary. It may employ such clerks, stenographers, statisticians and experts as the work of the commission may require. Practically the entire time of the members will be required for the work, as the report covering two or more complete systems of taxation, must be submitted to Governor by Nov. 1. The report is to be printed and given widest publicity for two months before the assembling of the special session of the General Assembly.

VESTED CHOIR.

New Feature in Christ Church Yesterday Morning.

For the first time in its history Christ Episcopal Church, of which George Washington and Robert E. Lee were vestrymen, had a vested choir at yesterday morning's services. The choir made a fine appearance at the services and the innovation received favorable comment. Its membership is made of thirty boys and girls and is under the charge of Director Bagley, of Washington. At last night's services the Rev. W. C. Bell of Episcopal Theological Seminary, preached in the absence of Rev. W. J. Morton, the rector.

PASSION MUSIC.

Choir of St. Paul's Church to Render "Seven Last Words of Christ."

As has been announced, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, at St. Paul's Church, the choir will sing DuBois's "Seven Last Words of Christ." This work was sung last year to the delight of a large congregation. The following is taken from a recent program announcing the staging of this service at a church in another city:

"One of the notable events in modern church music is the revival in interest of what is known as Passion Music, wherein is described in musical phase, the sufferings of our Lord in the tragic events of Holy Week."

"From time immemorial the custom of musical recitation and the chanting of the Gospel relating these events has been followed, and even as early as the fourth century we find the beginnings of a crude form of service, which in succeeding centuries was developed in the Italian Churches into something approaching the oratorio form."

"In the 17th century various German composers produced settings of the Passion and, abandoning the strict ecclesiastical forms of the Italians, gave to the Gospel narratives greater freedom of expression, developed the solo elements of the various participants, and introduced the elements of the populace, or the contemplative multitude, by utilizing the chorales which were to be sung by the congregation."

"The culmination of all these compositions is found in the monumental work of Bach, the St. Matthew Passion, a work of such great proportions that only the largest oratorio societies ever undertake it."

"For the average church choir many smaller works have become available in recent years, and less elaborate services by Stainer, Gail, Maunders and other composers are now frequently used, but they all modelled after the great Passion by Bach."

"For simplicity of construction, combined with wonderful melodic beauty and extraordinary dramatic fervor, no modern work is excelled by the 'Seven Last Words of Christ,' composed by DuBois, the talented French writer, long the organist of the 'Madeleine,' one of the great churches of Paris, and a leading spirit in the ardent musical life which has brought such artistic renown to the French capital."

"The composition as a whole reveals the hand of a master, who with simple materials can paint such a wonderful picture of dramatic design."

The solo numbers demand great fervor and intensity of expression, and the entire work is a wonderful portrayal in musical phrase of the series of events the greatest in all history."

The members of the other congregation and the musical public in general are invited to come and hear this service. The offertory will be for the choir fund.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. Fanny McArthur Green, wife of Major John W. Green, who died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kate M. Williams, Pocomoke City, Md., was held yesterday at 8:30 o'clock from St. Paul's Church. Services were conducted by the Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

The body of Frank C. McClary, 27 years old, son of Charles M. McClary, of this city, was brought here Saturday from Clifton, Va., and interred in Bethel Cemetery. Mr. McClary was killed by a train at Clifton March 24th, and as the remains were not identified at that time, was buried at Clifton.

The funeral of J. P. Laphen, messenger of the board of aldermen, took place this morning from St. Mary's Church. Services at the church were conducted by the Rev. H. J. Cutler, and at the grave by the Rev. Father Lecky. The pallbearers were W. M. Sweeney, J. B. Fitzgerald, John McKenna, T. McGowan, Harry Downham and L. H. Dolan.

VILLA DRIVES OUT HATED SPANIARDS

Six Hundred to Leave Torreon at Once and Property Confiscated.

FEUD CENTURIES OLD.

Villa Exonerated of Benton's Death—Major Fierro of Villa's Staff, Picked as Scapegoat for Execution.

Torreon, Mex., via El Paso, Tex., April 6.—General Francisco Villa has ordered that the 600 Spaniards of this city be deported. He issued instructions that trains be provided at once and that the exodus to El Paso should begin without delay. Their property will be confiscated, temporarily at least.

The deportation decree is the tragedy of Chihuahua over again, and is said to express the deep-rooted suspicion and even hatred with which the native Mexican, and particularly the peon, looks upon the Spaniard. Villa expelled the Dons from Chihuahua four months ago, and since then has repeatedly stated that other Spaniards would better get out of Mexico before he caught them. His abiding conviction that they were working as one man against the revolution found frequent expression while he was in Juarez, at which time he asserted he would execute every one that he found in Torreon.

The Spanish Government was aroused and Washington descended on the Constitutional chiefs with words of warning and admonition. Mexican hatred of the Spaniard, the people say, is a tradition handed down from the days of the conquest. It has been a part of their lives for three centuries, they declare. In Mexico the ranch overseer, the small shopkeeper, the money lender—in short, the butcher, the baker and candlestick maker of Mexican life—has been a Spaniard and is alleged to have used his superior intelligence to the disadvantage of the natives.

New York, April 6.—The Sun this morning prints the following:

"El Paso, April 6.—Carranza's investigating commission has decided that William S. Benton, the British rancher, was not murdered by Pancho Villa. He was not executed by a court-martial's order nor killed by a knife stab. He was not even killed in Juarez."

The report will say that Benton was killed at Samalayuca, thirty-two miles south of Juarez. Rodolfo Fierro, late rebel major and superintendent of railways for Pancho Villa, will be held responsible. The body, it will be said, was first buried in the soft sand at Samalayuca, but was later taken up by Villa and transported to Chihuahua and buried.

Villa will be completely exonerated and the killing will be laid entirely at the door of Fierro, who is now, and has been for several weeks, in jail at Chihuahua. He was stripped of his authority as superintendent of railways shortly after the Benton incident, and a few days later was placed in prison in Chihuahua. At the time it was given out that his arrest was in connection with the death of a woman at Chihuahua.

It became known today positively that the commission had completed its investigation, and is ready to report.

The Sun correspondent who sends this remarkable piece of news, says that Villa was persuaded to accept the idea of a bogus court-martial for Benton by a lawyer, who insisted that if a court-martial's report were given out the world would believe it. The world refused to believe it, however, and then Villa, alarmed, turned the whole matter over to Carranza.

COURT TO PASS ON PAROLE MATTER

Governor Will Apply For Injunction in Prison Test Case.

TO URGE FINAL ISSUE.

Attorney General's Opinion That Penitentiary Board is Without Power is to be Tested.

Richmond, April 6.—After a three-hour conference Saturday between Governor Stuart and members of the State Penitentiary Board, it was agreed to make a test case to determine the status of the parole law of 1904, which Attorney-General Pollard, in an opinion to the Governor, has held to be unconstitutional. On Saturday afternoon the Penitentiary Board will select some deserving convict who has served half of his term and order him paroled. Governor Stuart will at once apply to the courts for an injunction to restrain Major James B. Wood, superintendent of the prison, from releasing the man until he has served the term for which he was committed, or has been pardoned in the manner provided by law.

In this way the parole law will be brought squarely before the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia for final determination as to its validity. It is possible that it may be given preference on the court docket, and be argued at the June term at Wytheville. In the agreement reached yesterday, the Penitentiary Board obligates itself not to attempt to exercise the parole power other than in the agreed test case, until the matter has been finally determined by the courts.

It was stated that the conference was entirely friendly, and was merely to reach a clear determination as to the requirements of the law, but it is known that both the Governor and the prison board are disposed to stand firmly on their rights. In fact, the prison board points to an opinion rendered by former Attorney General Samuel W. Williams under date of April 9, 1913, in which it was held that Governor Mann did not have the right to remove members of the board from office, but could suspend individual members for constitutional offenses after due notice. The request for the opinion grew out of the alleged efforts of certain members of the board to secure the freedom of the Allen outlaws while the Governor was temporarily out of the State.

BLACKMAILING CHARGED.

Plot Alleged to Have Been Formed Against Physician.

Philadelphia, April 6.—A blackmailing plot of which Dr. H. D. Smyser, of York, Pa., was to have been the victim unless he paid $1,000, was revealed by detectives and postal inspectors yesterday, after they had arrested a man and woman charged with conspiracy to defraud by use of the mails. The prisoners are Ida Holloway, of No. 629 Vine street, this city, and Roscoe Holloway, of York, her nephew. The latter was locked up in New York for a hearing today and Miss Holloway was taken to the Central Police Station, where she is being held for a hearing tomorrow, when Roscoe Holloway will be brought to Philadelphia.

Holloway and his aunt were taken into custody by Detectives Edward Lynch and Timlin, of the Central Office staff; Postal Inspector McKim and Detective White, of New York. According to their reports Roscoe Holloway admitted writing to Dr. Smyser demanding $1,000, and Miss Holloway said she mailed two letters to the doctor. The detectives and postal inspectors said that on March 24 Dr. Smyser, who is widely known professionally and socially, received a letter postmarked Philadelphia, demanding $1,000, otherwise he would be exposed to the York authorities for the alleged concealment of a death two years ago.

WORK ON TABLET HALTEDMayor Fisher Desires to Make Further Investigation of Proposed Memorial

At the meeting of the City Council on October 14, 1913, the Colonial Dames of this city petitioned the city fathers for permission to place a memorial tablet in the northwestern corner of the City Hall building upon which certain local events of colonial days are to be recorded. The petition was referred to the committee on public property, and at the meeting of Council November 16, 1913, the committee reported favorably upon the petition, which report was adopted by both boards.

The organization was ready to begin the work of placing the tablet in position last week, but was stopped by Mayor Fisher, who desires to make further examination into the effect which the tablet will have in the place fixed upon.

The northwestern corner of the Market Building is at present rented by the Corby Baking Company, and should the tablet be placed there it will be necessary to close the window. Mayor Fisher questions the propriety of allowing this to be done, believing that the window is essential to the Market Building.

While not positively prohibiting the work, his honor desires time to make further investigation, and ascertain if some other location will not suit just as well, and a few days' delay will not make any great difference.

DIES ON TRAIN FROM "COKE."

Male Companion of Man Taken to Hospital Dying.

Wesley Bel, 22 years old, is dead, and R. J. Allen, 20 years of age, is dying from an overdose of cocaine which they took on an Atlantic Coast line train which passed through Alexandria yesterday morning.

Bel died on the train at Accotink. His body was removed from the train at Washington and taken to the morgue. Allen, in an unconscious condition, was carried to Providence Hospital, where his life is despaired of.

Coroner Nevitt yesterday afternoon, returned a verdict that Bell came to his death from an overdose of cocaine. According to the police, Bell a hotel "bell-hop," and Allen, a waiter, were from Texas and going north to look for employment. The men had three half-filled bottles, which according to Coroner Nevitt, contained cocaine.

Bell was taken ill on the train. He called to Timothy Coughlin who occupied a berth across the Pullman aisle, and asked him to summon a porter. The porter was requested to get a doctor. A physician who was on the train worked over the two men, but Bell died shortly after the train left Accotink.

Coughlin told the police that Allen had informed him Bell had been using "coke" constantly since leaving Texas. He said Bell persuaded him to use some of the drug during the night.

DIES FROM WOUNDS.

Man Shot By Negroes Proves to be College Graduate.

Petersburg, Va., April 6.—Milton Delaney, a native of New Orleans, aged 29 years, who was shot by an unknown negro on the Norfolk and Western Railway at Farmville, on Monday evening last, died of his injuries at the Petersburg Hospital Saturday night.

Delaney stated after he was wounded he was tramping and met two negroes on the railroad who attacked him, whereupon he knocked one of them down when the other negro drew a pistol and shot him through the stomach. He being a Catholic, asked that a priest be summoned, and Rev. Father Haier, of this city, was telegraphed for. He was brought here on an early train the following morning and operated on by Dr. H. A. Burke, who found that the bullet had made four perforations in the intestines.

A telegram was received by Father Haier from a brother of the deceased stating that Delaney was a graduate of a New Orleans college and that he was doing well until recently when he left home and commenced the life of a tramp.

The man had been drinking at the time he was shot and going without medical attention for twelve hours. It is thought to have prevented his recovery.

TRIES TO SPREAD SMALLPOX.

Negro Woman With the Disease Goes Into White School.

Onancock, Va., April 6.—What is believed to have been a deliberate attempt to spread smallpox among the white children at Painter was made today by a negro woman. Heavily armed, the woman entered the office of Mr. Kerns, where two children were sitting, the physician and sat down between them.

When the doctor arrived he found the negro woman had a fully developed case of smallpox. He ordered her to go home and avoid coming in contact with any one. Instead she entered the yard at the high school and mingled with the children, apparently trying to come close to every child. She also visited several negroes.

All of the children have been vaccinated.

NOT LAYING OFF MEN.

Fairfax Harrison Says Southern Railway is Not Practicing Curtailment.

Richmond, Va., April 6.—The Southern Railway is not finding it necessary to lay off men and withdraw trains from service as other roads have recently done, according to a statement given out by President Fairfax Harrison. Business conditions in the South are steadily improving, he says, and the slight decrease in revenue experienced last month is not thought to be anything but a temporary depression.

"Speaking generally," said Mr. Harrison, "we have not in recent months curtailed our shop hours, nor have we withdrawn trains, nor practiced any other extraordinary form of curtailment. Business conditions in the South are essentially sound, and while there has been in recent weeks some slowing up in the general movement of traffic, resulting in small decreases of revenue as compared with a year ago, we do not at the moment anticipate such continued falling off of revenues as will make necessary a change of policy with regard to appropriations."

RICHMOND TO CELEBRATE.

Jollification Over Securing Regional Bank.

Richmond, Va., April 6.—Within a few weeks there will be a general public celebration that will overshadow anything ever attempted by Richmond, if the plans of the Chamber of Commerce and the committees from the several business organizations named and known as the civic co-operative committee are carried through successfully. In this the people of Richmond and of Virginia and of the cities of other states, who will be visitors here, will be permitted to see why Richmond was successful in securing the regional bank. The program will be outlined at a meeting to be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The public celebration will take place on the day that the reserve bank begins its operation in the fifth district, if such celebration on that day be found practicable.

That this celebration shall surpass in magnitude anything ever before attempted in Richmond is the determination of the committees.

On the day the reserve bank begins operations, Richmond will welcome all and will entertain all, who may accept the opportunity to come to this city. A great civic and military pageant, with scores of artistic floats, representative of the wide range of local activities, and splendid fireworks display are planned as the spectacular features of the celebration.

WOLF KILLED IN LUNENBURG.

Hunt of Week Ends in Death of Animal Which Alarmed Many People.

Lawrenceville, Va., April 6.—News comes from the adjacent county of Lunenburg of a lively wolf hunt, which terminated successfully. For about three weeks negroes have been stating that a wolf had been visiting the county at night, but the reports were thought to be products of superstitions. On a recent Sunday as services were being closed at the Oakland Christian Church, the congregation were alarmed to see a large animal of the wolf family dash across an open space near the church.

Hunting parties scoured the county for about a week, when one of the hunters wounded the wolf badly. In his wounded condition the animal led the party an eight-mile chase to Whittle's Mill, on the Meherrin river, where it tried to cross on the ice. As the river was not frozen completely over, the wounded wolf attempted to return to the shore, but was shot down on the ice. The body broke through the thin ice and was not found for more than a week, when a trapper discovered it several miles below the place where it was killed.

The animal was larger than a shepherd dog, and furnished an excellent pet.

WISHES TO GO TO SENATE.

C. O'Connor Goolrick, of Fredericksburg Will Make Race For Seat Vacated by Moncure.

Fredericksburg, Va., April 6.—The appointment of Senator R. C. L. Moncure to the position of United States collector of internal revenue for the Eastern District of Virginia, will leave a vacancy in the State Senate, as Mr. Moncure will resign as soon as his nomination by the President is confirmed, which, it is expected will be in a few days. The election to fill this vacancy in the State Senate will be held some time this year, as the legislature will meet in extra session to consider the tax problem. C. O'Connor Goolrick, of Fredericksburg, a former member of the House of Delegates, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination, and his friends are active in his support. Mr. Goolrick is a prominent attorney of this city, and has been active in public affairs for a number of years.

NEWSBOY, KILLED.

Richmond, April 6.—Joseph Goode, a twelve-year-old colored newsboy, was instantly killed Saturday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock on Marshall street, near Thirteenth, when he was knocked down and run over by the heavy automobile patrol of the First Police District. W. H. Metcalf, the driver, was arrested and the formal charge of murder was lodged against him. By order of Chief of Police Werner, Metcalf was suspended from duty pending the outcome of the trial.

According to his statement, the boy had been riding on the rear of a wagon, and jumped off just as the patrol approached from the opposite direction. He said that he ran directly in front of the wagon, hesitated, and then tried to get across the street when he was struck.

ALLEGED BANDIT ARRESTED.

Said to Have Confessed Share in Holding up Seaboard Train.

Norfolk, Va., April 6.—The Seaboard Air Line Railway's general offices here report the arrest at Columbia, S. C., of a man named Radcliffe, as one of a gang of six local men alleged to have been connected with the hold-up of a Southern Express Company's messenger on the Seaboard's Tampa-New York express train at Columbia March 28. Radcliffe is alleged to have made a confession upon which it is expected to apprehend the five others.

The Seaboard Air Line also reported the taking into custody of R. C. Fletcher, a Southern Express messenger, who is alleged to have confessed that a report that he was held up on a Seaboard express from Birmingham, to New York at Comer, Ga., April 2, was a hoax. Seaboard officials say the motive is alleged to have been hope of reward and protection for "brave service."

KILLED BY AUTO.

Richmond Merchant Struck on Floyd Avenue.

Richmond, April 6.—Henry Holzgreffe, a wealthy retired contractor, living at 2201 Grove Avenue, was almost instantly killed Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when he was struck and run over on Floyd Avenue by an automobile driven by J. H. Morris, of the painting contracting firm of J. H. Morris and Company. The automobile was going westward when the accident occurred, and, according to the owner and some of the eye witnesses from whom the police secured statements, Mr. Holzgreffe stepped backwards from the curb directly in front of the oncoming machine. Mr. Morris, as he stated afterwards, blew his horn, but it sounded too late. The car struck Mr. Holzgreffe a fearful impact, and he fell beneath and between the wheels. Measurements afterwards made by Detective Smith and Policeman Clark, showed that the body was dragged fifty-two feet before the car was stopped. Mr. Holzgreffe was struck opposite the house at 2212 Floyd Avenue.

BACK TO THE
BIBLE MOVEMENT.

The "back to the farm" movement should have its counterpart in the slogan
"back to the Bible," according to Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, who addressed the centennial meeting of the Virginia Bible Society in Richmond yesterday.

Mr. Daniels quoted James Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States, as having stated that he was impressed, both in the United States and England, with the fact that knowledge of the Bible is declining among all classes, with an incalculable loss to the life of the country.
The Secretary asserted, however, that he took a more optimistic view, and that the system of International Sunday School lessons had stimulated interest in Bible study.

Many will take issue with Secretary Daniels. It is not believed by some who have studied present conditions that the originators of the international lessons, though meaning well, have accomplished all they had hoped for. It is a noticeable fact that during the past forty years the international system has been in use in Sunday schools interest in Bible study has declined at a fearful rate. In fact the introduction of leaflets containing fragmentary portions of the sacred writings has made Bible study a side show, and with the introduction of so many other features has stifled interest in what should be the sine qua non of Sunday schools.

Half a century ago the scholars were acquainted with the historical portion of the sacred writings, at least, and often quoted Bible incidents while at play. It is not so now, however, and, using the language of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, the great majority seem to "have lost the language of Canaan."

People who have devoted most of their lives to teaching in Sunday schools find it difficult to interest young or old in Bible study, and it is difficult to maintain classes, especially of older boys.

Were we to send our children to schools where fragmentary portions of history were studied, a few lines here or there in English grammar examined and the ground rules of arithmetic ignored, while references were occasionally made to problems of Euclid, changes in conditions would soon be detected.

The writer recently read the preface to "Jane Eyre," written by Charlotte Bronte, the little Irish girl.
It abounds in pointed references to the Bible, especially the Old Testament. She wrote at a time when the Bible was the most generally read of books. Her reference would not be so well understood in our day.

It has ever appeared to us that the Bible should be read from the beginning, as should any other book in order to understand and enjoy it.

SET FIRE TO HISTORIC CHURCH.

Suffragettes on Saturday evening attempted to set fire to the famous Church of St. Martin's in Trafalgar square, London. A crude bomb, wrapped in suffragette literature,
exploded after the church closed.
Two ancient pews and two stained glass windows were shattered.

This ancient house of worship is generally known as St. Martin's in-the-Field. It is situated in the central section of the west centre of the British metropolis. It is opposite the Royal Art Gallery at Charing Cross. It has always been believed that Jack Sheppard was buried under one of the slabs in the yard. After that specimen of incorrigibility and degeneracy had been hanged at Holburn it is said a mob took charge of the body before life was extinct and started west.
If the spark of life was viable after the crowd took him from the hangman it was soon extinguished. It is said the remains were later interred in the yard of St. Martin's, and visitors to London who have read Ainsworth's life of the desperado view the time-eaten slabs and think of Jack Sheppard and his checkered career.

AUTOMOBILE FATALITIES.

Two persons were killed by automobiles in Richmond during the last two days of last week. Henry J.
Holzgreve, a retired merchant, was struck Friday just as he stepped from a curb to the roadway and terribly mangled. His body was carried fifty feet by the speeding car before the chauffeur could bring it to a stop.
Joseph Ross, a 13-year-old colored boy, had his life crushed out by a motor car used by the police Saturday afternoon.

The words of Mother Shipton's prophecy were often quoted after the avent of steam cars. They seem to bear more literally upon automobiles.

Carriages without horses shall go,
And accidents fill the world with woe.

CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

Chicago Women Will Vote for the First Time Tomorrow.

Chicago, April 6.—The political campaign here drew to a close last night and Chicago women prepared, for the first time, to exercise their right at franchise at the election here tomorrow. There are 217,614 women eligible to cast their votes and election authorities expect that at least 175,000 of these will go to the polls and aid in the selection of 36 aldermen and express themselves on the 12 questions of municipal policy submitted.

The entrance of the women is expected to result in the largest vote ever cast in an election here. There are 455,283 men on the registration lists and a total of more than 475, 000 votes is expected.

Besides the shifting of political conditions through the votes of women in Chicago, 3,000 saloons in Illinois will survive or perish Tuesday by the votes of 50,000 newly enfranchised voters in 300 townships where wet and dry elections are to be held.
The women voters hold the balance of power and their vote is an unknown quantity. All but 15 of these townships are now wet and the Prohibition forces are seeking to turn them into the dry column. Chief among the cities where the fight has centered are Springfield, Joliet, Aurora, Elgin, Rock Island, Moline, Decatur, Bloomington, Woodstock
and other important places.

F. Scott McBride, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, predicts that more than 75 per cent.
of the women who will vote Tuesday will vote against the sale of liquor.

Anti-saloon forces in Chicago announce their decision to launch a campaign of education to culminate in a fight in 1915 or 1916 to vote
Chicago dry.

Although there are eight women candidates among the 154 seeking places in the Chicago City Council, most of the women's clubs and civic organizations have centered their campaign efforts in the First Ward, where Miss Marion Drake, a law student, has set out to displace
"Bathhouse" John Coughlin, who,
with Michael Keenan, has represented the ward for 20 years.

Bond issues to the amount of nearly $9,000,000 are involved in the questions of policy to be voted in Chicago. The questions also include the settlement of a subway transportation system, an important amendment of the Municipal Court act, the annexation of the two towns of Morgan Park and Clero, and a home rule amendment of the public utilities act.

A Neglected Cold Often
Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat or Lung trouble have been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clasping your throat, or if you feel a stinging in the chest, or if you are trying to stop this supposed trivial trouble, the throat and lungs later become affected. In many cases Eckman's Salve has been the means of bringing permanent relief. Investigate this case.

"Gentlemen: For five or six years I have been troubled with cough and expec-toration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Lung Trouble by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creos-tine and other medicines, all without benefit. At Christmas time, 1909, I was advised to use Eckman's Salve. I bought a bottle which I used for a week.
I got out all my mucus and have had no cough or cold since. I have been telling facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Salve."—J. H. KASLEY.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Vic Gueringer, pool hall proprietor, must hang for the part he played in the attack which six men are charged with making on Mrs. Gertrude Shidler, on March 9, last, in Kansas City, Mo. The crime was one of the most sensational ever committed here. On the afternoon of March 9, Mrs. Shidler, a nurse, was lured to a room in a downtown district by a man who asserted that a physician wished to employ her on a case. When she arrived at the room six men attacked her. The State alleged Gueringer had committed the most depraved offense of the six and elected to try him first. Five men are still held by the police in connection with the case.

Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson, of Methodist Church South, who has very recently recovered from what the doctors considered a severe and dangerous illness, led the services and preached yesterday morning at Trinity Church, Madison Avenue and Preston streets, Baltimore.

The steamship Kyle, which was sent by the government to search for the missing steamer Southern Cross, believed lost with 170 men on board, reported yesterday that no trace of the missing vessel had been found.

Charles W. Bryan, brother of Secretary of State Bryan, is said to be preparing to announce himself a gubernatorial candidate in Nebraska.

Mrs. Ellis R. Harbert, wife of a prominent physician of Stockton, Cal., was shot and instantly killed Saturday by a Japanese servant while she was in one of the upper bedrooms of her home in the suburbs. After killing Mrs. Harbert the slayer locked the door of the room and busied himself gathering up silverware and other valuables. The servant took refuge in the basement, where he killed himself as he was about to be arrested. Certain instructions given the servant by Mrs. Harbert about his work angered him and caused him to commit the deed.

Armed with a double-barreled shotgun, David Page, of Urichville, Ohio, entered his henhouse Saturday night, and, bundled in a heavy overcoat, seated himself in a dark corner to watch for thieves. At midnight he dropped off into deep slumber. While he slept the thieves stole the last of his chickens and the shotgun.

Absolute prohibition will prevail in the United States navy after July 1 next. Secretary Daniels last night made public a sweeping order, which not only will abolish the traditional "wine mess" of the officers, but will bar all alcoholic liquors from every ship and shore station of the navy. This order was issued upon the recommendation of Surgeon General Braisted.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Sun says: The first half year's record of the new tariff law shows a falling off revenues, increased deficits, reduced industrial activity, and smaller exportation of manufacturers. The actual figures for the six months show a falling off of more than $25,000,000 in customs receipts, as compared with the corresponding period of the preceding year. After the first of July the Treasury will receive receipts from the income tax, which it is estimated for the first ten months, will foot up in round figures $90,000,000 and even if receipts from customs show a decrease of $85,000,000 a year, will leave a net increase in the revenues of the Treasury annually under the present laws of $5,000,000.

Deciding votes were being cast today at Democratic primaries throughout Alabama in the fight between Oscar Underwood, majority leader of the national House of Representatives, and Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson for the Alabama vacancy in the United States Senate. Democrats also cast their votes today for a successor to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Joseph F. Johnston, ten United States representatives, a governor, and other State and county officials. If political prognostications are worth anything, Mr. Underwood will be the victor.

Capt. J. Thomas Hollinger, of the First Precinct, Washington, shot and killed himself Saturday. Pharmacol reverses caused him to kill himself, according to rumors at police headquarters. It was known that the captain was interested in certain commercial enterprises. Recent financial losses, it is said, drove him to despondency.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time, says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, 'I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my household work.'"

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more and I don't have to go to bed. In fact I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

MARY PHAGAN MURDER.

Detective Burns Will Make His Report This Week.

Atlanta, Ga., April 5.—William J. Burns, the detective, who arrived in Atlanta Saturday night, announced yesterday that his report on the Mary Phagan murder case will be made this week.

His work on the case is practically complete, he says, and he declares that the report will leave no question as to the identity of Mary Phagan's slayer.

Isolated sentences dropped by the detective in the course of a talk indicated more strongly than ever that Burns, in his report, will exonerate Leo M. Frank, who has been condemned for the murder, and attempt to pin the crime upon a colored witness against Frank.

"Do you think that Frank should have a new trial?" Burns was asked. "Unquestionably he should," was the quick reply.

"Because of the state of the public mind at the time of the trial or because of the evidence?" was the next question.

"I shouldn't like to say anything that would anticipate my report," Burns replied.

Burns said that the Phagan case alone caused him to make the trip to Chicago and Kansas City.

"Did you find any material witnesses?"

"I wouldn't say I found material witnesses, but I did get material information. As I have always said, the solution of the case, which is not a mystery, is right in Atlanta, but the information I obtained is valuable."

"Is Conley still in jail?" asked Burns.

On receiving affirmative reply he said that he expects to go to see Attorney Smith in an effort to arrange an interview with the colored man.

"Do you think it is necessary to see him?"

"Not necessary said Burns, 'but I want to see him.'"

Conley was a witness for the State when Frank was tried.

Burns said also that he expected to call upon Solicitor Dorsey and Newport Lanford, chief of detectives, this week.

CONFESSES CRIME.

Prisoner Then Attacks Cellmates, Injuring Two of Them Badly.

Danville, Va., April 6.—Claiming that he murdered his uncle and his stepfather, Tom Hart, at Braxton, Ga., near Douglas, four years ago, Tom Hart, twenty-seven years, gave himself up to a local police officer on Main street at 1 o'clock yesterday morning and was placed in a jail cell. Soon thereafter he knocked two of his cellmates unconscious on the floor with a broom handle, which he managed to draw through a hypodermic injection, and has been somewhat most of the day.

Hart last night walked up to Police Officer Petty and told him that he had been tried and acquitted for the murder of his uncle four years ago, and that after his acquittal he had shot his stepfather, Tom Hart, after which he escaped. After wandering about in different parts of the country he located in Danville two years ago.

While being conducted to the courthouse Hart said that thought of the murder preyed constantly on his mind, and that recently it had become such an acute burden to him that he had determined to make a clean breast of it.

The police have sent word to Braxton, Ga., asking information about Hart.

Three persons were killed and about 35 others injured, some seriously, when the Washburn passenger train No. 4, known as the Continental Limited, was wrecked when the bridge over the Washburn river, just west of Atlanta, Ind., gave way yesterday. The engine, a baggage car, and the day coach dropped into the water. When the cars left the bridge the day coach, which was crowded, fell with the rear end out of the water, and though the majority of the injured were in this car none of them was killed.

Why Should I Smoke TUXEDO?

TUXEDO is the logical smoke for the economic man because there are 40 pipefuls in every tin of Tuxedo. The average cost of a pipeful of Tuxedo is only one-fourth of a cent!

To buy cheaper tobacco means to get less pleasure out of smoking, because it is impossible to make a tobacco as good as Tuxedo at less than the Tuxedo price!

Tuxedo is made of only the finest, choicest selected leaves of perfectly aged Burley tobacco. It is made by the original Tuxedo process which takes all the unpleasantness out of tobacco and leaves all the pleasantness in!

Tuxedo has a deliciously mild, fragrant aroma that is pleasant to all. It is the only tobacco you can smoke in a room full of lace curtains without leaving even a trace of an odor.

A trial will convince you that Tuxedo is superior to every other tobacco you have ever smoked. Buy a tin—today.
